Join members of the Global Citizenship Commission in discussion on issues of human rights, ethics, and global citizenship. The Global Citizenship Commission, chaired by former UK Prime Minister The Rt. Hon. Gordon Brown MP, aims to undertake a review of the 1948 Universal Declaration of Human Rights and suggest revisions or updates that would make it a more comprehensive, relevant, and timely expression of basic human rights and dignity. This event will be an opportunity to hear about the work of and engage in discussion with representatives of the Commission.

Following remarks by Chair, Gordon Brown, hear perspectives of Commissioners Anthony Appiah, Craig Calhoun, John Kufuor, and Emma Rothschild in conversation with John Sexton, President of New York University. Public discussion to follow, featuring Michael N. Forster, Markus Gabriel, and Dieter Sturma.
